Together, the names compose the statement: (J) Praise God! (R) Behold, a Son, (G) whose fortune has come. (A) They are happy and blessed (N) after wrestling and striving, (M) forgetting their past troubles, (S) hearing and obeying, (L) united as one. (I) Their recompense for their labor (Z) is to dwell with God, and He will (J) increase and add to them many (B) sons of His right hand.

Another way of stating this is: I will praise Yahweh for He has looked on me and granted good fortune. Happy am I because my wrestling Yahweh is making me to forget. Yahweh hears me and is joined to me. He has purchased me a dwelling. Yahweh will add to me Yeshua, the Son of His right hand.

Dan and Ephraim are not mentioned. Dan means “judged”. All things are made new! Yeshua is the believer's righteousness, and His righteousness is perfect. Those in Yeshua do not receive judgment. There is no condemnation in Ha’Mashiach. Ephraim means being “fruitful in the land of my affliction”. Those in Yeshua no longer belong to Egypt - the world. They have been transferred to the Kingdom of Yahweh! They are living in a new kingdom, and are under a new government!
