The Biblical Prophecies Start With The First Hebrew Word in Genesis, B're'shiyth! – Not Verse 3:15

Isaiah 46:10 – Yahweh declares “At the beginning I make known the end from the beginning [H7225 רֵאשִׁית re'shiyth] and from ancient times the things that are not yet done.”

You have heard it said that “the first prophecy in the Bible is in Genesis 3:15” – which states “I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your descendant {seed} and her descendant {seed}; he will bruise your head, and you will bruise his heel.” But that belief is not at all accurate – not even close – We do not have to wait until Genesis 3:15 for prophecy to begin being revealed!

Yahweh declares that prophecy starts at the beginning^[H7225], so we should find prophecy right from the very first verse in the Bible, perhaps even in the first word, not three chapters later – and indeed we do as the first seven Hebrew words in the Bible are filled with prophecy, especially the very first word: B're'shiyth!

B're'shiyth is the word re'shiyth [H7225 רֵאשִׁית] – preceded by the enlarged letter Bet which means the first, in place, time, order or rank. In other words –in the beginning! Let's take a closer look.

Words and Prophecies Found in Just the First Hebrew Word of the Torah

The first word of the Hebrew Bible is: B're'shiyth. It is pronounced Breh-sheet. B're'shiyth can be [and traditionally is] translated “in the beginning”. The amazing thing about this word in Hebrew is when the letter Bet ב is used first it can mean either “In” or “For” or “By”. Re'shiyth רֵאשִׁית means first, foremost, or firstfruit. Therefore, it is just as accurate to translate the first word: “for the firstfruit”, or “by the firstfruit!”

- The first letter, the Bet, means House. The enlarged Bet ב means this is the story of how Elohim (God) is going to build his house.
- The second letter, the Resh ר means head. To start a house (family), the head of the household, a man, takes a bride. From the very beginning it has been Elohim's plan to build his house by taking a bride and bringing forth his children.
- The first two letters combined, Bet and Resh רב, means Head of Household in Paleo Hebrew. Yeshua is the head of the house of God – Ephesians 1:22. [See also Psalm 8:6; Matthew 28:18; 1 Corinthians 15:27; and Hebrews 2:8].
- The first three letters, the Bet Resh Aleph ארב form the word “Bara” which means “created” – a type of creation that is limited to only God's ability.

Within the first word “In the beginning” we have the phrase “the Head of the Household Created”, the phrase “By and for the Head of Household”, and also the phrase “By and for the firstfruit”! Prophecy right from the very first word in the Bible, not three chapters later!

These concepts are stated clearly in John 1:1-3 – “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made.” This is also stated in Genesis 1:3; Psalm 33:6; Ephesians 3:9; Colossians 1:16; and Hebrews 1:2.

Conclusions on the First Hebrew Word of the Torah

Isaiah 46:9-10 – “I am Elohim, and there is none like me. At the beginning I make known the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done; and I say that my plan will hold, I will do everything I please to do.”

John 1:1-3 – “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made.”

Colossians 1:18: “Yeshua is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might come to have first place in everything.”

From the very beginning it has been Elohim's plan to prophesy what will come to pass.
He did not wait until the third chapter of the Bible to begin revealing those prophecies.

But that is not all, there is much more

Words and Prophecies Found in the First Seven Words of the Torah

The first seven words are: B're'shiyth bara' Elohim et ha'shamayim w'et ha'erets and is pronounced: Breh-sheet ba-ra El-oh-heem et ha-sha-ma-yeem w'et ha-a-retz.

The first four words of the Torah are: B're'shiyth bara Elohim et. In English, “In the beginning Elohim created et!”, or “Elohim created the aleph-bet” – from which we get the English word: alphabet. Since Elohim created the Aleph-Tav before he created anything else, the Aleph-Tav is considered to be the primordial building block of all creation.

Et is an untranslatable word, spelled aleph-tav in Hebrew, but is a descriptor or title of Yeshua. It indicates that a definite direct object is next, therefore it must come before the heavens and before the earth, and indicates who created both: Yeshua, the Aleph-Tav. If the Aleph-Tav, or Yeshua, were to depart for even an instant, it is believed that all creation would disappear into absolute nothingness.

Prophetically speaking, this is confirmed according to Colossians 1:17 – “He existed before all things, and he holds everything together,” and John 1:3 – “All things came to be through him, and without him nothing made had being,” just to name two. See also [Psalm 33:6; Ephesians 3:9; Colossians 1:16; and Hebrews 1:2].

The aleph alone has overtones of the “end of days” spoken of in prophecy. The numerical value of the aleph is 1 or 1,000, and each aleph is said to represent 1 day, or 1,000 years. There are six alephs in the first verse of the Torah, and this represents the six days of creation, and also the six thousand years of man’s time of stewardship before Yeshua returns to set up his millennial reign, his eternal rule. Remember, “With the Lord, one day is like a thousand years and a thousand years like one day” – 2 Peter 3:8. See also [Psalm 90:4].

In the original Paleo – Hebrew, the Aleph / Tav (et) letters would look like an ox and a cross. We know that Aleph-Tav is a title for Yeshua. This prophecy is confirmed according to Isaiah 41:4; Isaiah 44:6; Isaiah 48:12; and also Revelation 1:17 – “Don’t be afraid! I am the First and the Last.” It is also confirmed by Revelation 1:8; 21:6; and 22:13 – “I am the Alpha and the Omega.”

We also know that Yeshua will come twice, as prophesied by the two Aleph-Tavs. The first time Yeshua came is confirmed according to Romans 5:6; and 1 Timothy 2:6 – “At the right time, the Messiah died on behalf of ungodly people.” That Yeshua will come again a second time is confirmed according to Matthew 16:27; 24:40; & 26:64; Mark 13:26; & 14:62; Luke 21:27; Acts 1:11; and Revelation 1:7 – “They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven.”

And if we replace only the three Tavs then it looks like three crosses! We also know that the prophecy of three crosses is confirmed according to Matthew 27:38, Mark 15:27, and Luke 23:33 – “On execution stakes with Yeshua they placed two robbers, one on his right and one on his left.”

Chart: First Verse with Paleo-Hebrew Alephs and Tavs

When the first seven words are written in the Paleo-Hebrew font, prophecy is revealed.
 We do not have to wait until Genesis 3:15 for prophecy to begin being revealed!!

The Waw, The Broken Waw, and The Messiah

The first use of the letter waw (also known as the vav) in Genesis 1:1 is in the sixth word, w’et (וְאֶת). It is there that the waw is connected to the second aleph-tav in connection to Yeshua. It refers to the connection between all letters, the connection to the Aleph-Tav who is Yeshua, and is therefore the connecting force of Elohim, the divine “hook” that binds together heaven and earth.

And who does scripture say Yeshua is? 1 Timothy 2:5 tells us “For Elohim is one, and there is one mediator between Yahweh and humankind, between heaven and earth, the man Yeshua Ha’Mashiach”! Hebrews 8:6 confirms this – “But now Yeshua has obtained a more excellent ministry, by as much as He is also the mediator of a better covenant, which has been enacted on better promises.” As does Hebrews 9:15 – “It is because of this death that Yeshua is mediator of a new covenant.”

The sixth word in Genesis is w’et – waw aleph tav – the God who is man, and who is pierced by man, who brings a covenant of peace (shalom). This prophecy of shalom can be found in Numbers 25:7-13, in the account of Pinchas, a type or pattern of Yeshua.

Numbers 25:12-13 – “I am giving him my covenant of shalom, making a covenant with him and his descendants after him that the office of Cohen will be theirs forever. This is because he was zealous on behalf of his God and made atonement for the people of Israel.”

The word shalom in this verse is written with a broken waw! The broken waw represents the pierced hand of Messiah nailed to the cross to achieve our peace, our shalom!

Other Words Found in the First Seven Hebrew Words

H410 אֵל 'el

= God, as in El Shaddai, as the Superior or Indomitable Strength

The Man Yeshua

Yeshua is the Creator (Bara H1254) of all things

Genesis 1:1 – “In the beginning Yeshua created the heavens and the earth.”

Colossians 1:16-17 – “For by Yeshua were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.”

Yeshua is Head (Rosh H7218) of all things

Genesis 49:26 – “The blessings of your father are greater than the blessings of the eternal mountains or the desirable things of the age-old hills. They will be on the head of Joseph and on the brow of the prince of his brothers.”

Ephesians 1:22 – “He put all things in subjection under Yeshua's feet, and gave him to be head over all things.”

Yeshua is the Stone (Eben H68) that the builders rejected (ma'ac H3988)

Isaiah 28:16 – “Therefore thus says Adonai Yahweh, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation.”

1 Peter 2:6-8 – “The very stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.” See Also [Psalm 118:22; Matthew 21:42; Acts 4:11; Romans 9:33; and Ephesians 2:20].

- Father אב [‘ab H1]
- Son בן [ben H1121]
- Stone אבן [‘eben H68]

The word for father and the Aramaic word for son combine to spell stone!

Yeshua wears a Crown of Thorns (Shayith H7898) on his head (re'sh H7217)

John 19:2-5 – “And the soldiers twisted together a crown of thorns and put it on Yeshua's head, and put a purple robe on Him . . . So Yeshua came out, wearing the thorn-branch crown and the purple robe..” See also [Matthew 27:29; and Mark 15:17].

The Son (Bar H1247) of God (Elohim H430) is Hung on a Tree (‘ets H6086) as a Gift (Shay H7862)

Mark 15:30-32 – “Save yourself and come down from the cross . . . that we may see and believe!” See also [Matthew 27:35-36; and Luke 23:33].

John 4:10 – “If you knew God's gift . . . then you would have asked him; and he would have given you living water.”

Acts 2:33 – “Moreover, he has been exalted to the right hand of God; has received from the Father what he promised, namely, the Ruach Ha’Kodesh; and has poured out this gift, which you are both seeing and hearing.”

Ephesians 2:8 – “For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God.”

The Son is Pierced (kûr H3564) in his Hands (Yad H3027) and Feet (Regel H7272)

Psalm 22:16 – “They pierced my hands and my feet.” See Also [Zechariah 12:10].

John 19:37 – “They will look on the one whom they have pierced.” See also [Matthew 27:35; Mark 15:24; Luke 23:33; John 19:23; and John 20:25].

Yeshua is the Firstfruit (Re'shiyth H7225) of the Resurrection (chayah H2421)

Leviticus 22:10 – “You are to bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest to the Cohen.”

1 Corinthians 15:20-23 – “But now is Yeshua risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of those who are asleep. For since death came by man, the resurrection of the dead also came by man. For as in Adam all die, so also in Yeshua all will be made alive. But each in his own order: Yeshua the first fruits, then those who are Yeshua's, at his coming.”

Yeshua / Yahweh Is Humble

Important Names Begin With The Yod

The Important Names all begin with the Yod, the smallest letter, not with the Lamed, the largest letter.

• Yahweh	יְהוָה	H3068
• Yeshua	יֵשׁוּעָה	H3444
• Yehoshua	יְהוֹשֻׁעַ	H3091
• Yishrael	יִשְׂרָאֵל	H3478
• Yehuda	יְהוּדָה	H3063

The Meaning Of The Names Yeshua and Yahweh

The name Yeshua would have been written in ancient Hebrew. The four letters that make up the name of Yeshua are: Yod, Shin, Waw, Ayin [יֵשׁוּעַ H3442]. The letter waw means hook. It can also mean nail. Yeshua was hung on the cross (three tavs) using three nails. In other words, three waws!

The name Yahweh would also have been written in ancient Hebrew. The four letters that make up the name of Yahweh are Yod, Hey, waw, Hey [יְהוָה H3068] and can be translated to mean:

- The Man With The Outstretched Arms and Nailed Hands Shall Be Revealed Twice.
- Behold the Nail, Behold the Hand.
- Behold the Nailed Hand.

The overall meaning of the word, YHWH is: salvation! Therefore, the four letters can also be translated to mean:

- Behold – The Nailed Hand Is Salvation.

The First And Last Words

The first word of Torah is B're'shiyt, which starts with the Bet, and the last word of Torah is Israel which ends with the Lamed. Reading from right to left, are the letters Lamed Bet, which mean: Control and House. The first letter of Torah and the last letter of Torah spell Leb [H3820 - לֵב], which means heart. Separately, Bet means house, and lamed means leader, or control. The heart controls the house. Torah is the heart of Yahweh, so, it is the heart which controls the house!

The Aleph-Bet

- The Alphabet starts with the Aleph and ends with the Tav.
- The Alphabet in Hebrew, like time, is circular.
- In the very center is the Mem, Lamed, and Kaf, which spells Melekh, or King

Final Conclusions

Isaiah 46:9-10 – “I am Elohim, and there is none like me. At the beginning I announce the end, I proclaim in advance things not yet done; and I say that my plan will hold, I will do everything I please to do”.

You have heard it said that “the first prophecy in the Bible is in Genesis 3:15” – But that belief is not at all accurate – not even close – We do not have to wait until Genesis 3:15 for prophecy to begin being revealed!

Yahweh declares he tells the end from the beginning, therefore prophecy starts being revealed right from the very first verse in the Bible.

From the very beginning it has been Elohim's plan to prophesy what will come to pass. Elohim did not wait until the third chapter of the Bible to begin revealing those prophecies.

From the very first word, the Biblical scriptures confirm that:

- Prophecy begins in the first verse of Genesis.
- The first word in the Bible, B're'shiyth is filled with prophecy.
- The first seven Hebrew words in the Bible are filled with prophecy.
- You do not have to wait until Genesis 3:15 to find the first prophecy.
